Approval of Minutes: Motion to approve November 9th, 2019 Minutes moved by Penny and seconded by Nancy. Approved.

Food and Beverage Report/Josh and Roger

- Sales continue to trend upward
- Comment cards are generally positive and supportive
- There seems to be two distinct customer groups divided 50/50 one patronizes the Special Menu the other enjoys the old favorites like meatloaf
- Discussion on if our Holiday meals should be served on Saturday night or on Sunday. No conclusion was reached further discussion in new year.
- Tree lighting was successful and fun for young and old alike. Good food, fellowship and of course Santa
- Discussed buffet vs plate service. Josh indicated that events with large participation are better suited for the buffet format both for service and cost.
- NYE menu was distributed. Tablecloths, napkins, and decorations to make the event more festive.
- A discussion took place regarding the upstairs NYE party and the importance of protecting revenue of the HOA bar and restaurant.
- Dumbwaiter/Susan Smart and Josh will work together on the practicality of putting into service
- Tom and Jerry Party first there was disappointment that the event was abruptly cancelled, and secondly the event should be set for the 2nd Saturday in December reducing the possibility of Chamber and City conflicting events and finally prior to cancelling an event the Board should reach out to the Inn Committee and all other committee chairpersons for their help in resolving the problem and assisting in future event.

- Motion to the board-from the Inn Committee to include all committee chairpersons to assist in 2020 Tom and Jerry Party to be held on 2nd Saturday in December 2020. Motion made by Penny Cory, second by Nancy Milliman passed unanimously.
